Remembrance Day

Indigenous Veterans

National Aboriginal Day is celebrated each year on June 21, while Aboriginal Veterans Day is commemorated on November 8. Indigenous people in Canada have reason to be proud of their wartime contributions. More than 7,000 First Nations members served in the First and Second World Wars and the Korean War, and an unknown number of Inuit, Métis and other Indigenous people also participated. One Veterans group estimates that 12,000 Indigenous men and women served in the three wars.

To all of our Indigenous veterans in our community and beyond who served. We thank you and do not forget.

New Dates Please note that the Santa Parade in Bathurst has a new date. This year's parade will happen on December 8th!
